CITY GOVERNMENT.

Appropriation Bill Referred to Committee on Second Reading.

Large Number of Petitions Received and Other Routine Business Disposed of moving the incandescent light in front of Seymour's blacksmith shop up on top of the hill.

On motion of Ald. Yeaton the recommendations were accepted and adopted. The appropriation bill as adopted and passed by the common council and before printed in the HERALD, was read by the city clerk.

Ald. Hoyt wanted to know what the difference was between the bill as passed by the lower board and the one made out by the financial committee.

He was told by the clerk that $1000 had been added to the appropriation on sewers and $200 to the amount on streets.

The same alderman wanted to know if anyone knew or had any idea what the tax rate would be this year.

He was informed that it would probably be about $2.12, although the assessors had not finished their work or made any report. These figures were simply a rough estimate.

Ald. Hoyt thought the taxes ought not to be over $2.00 and it would be just as well not to pass the appropriation bill at present.

On motion of Ald. Yeaton the bill passed its first reading and was referred to the committee on bills on second reading.

A petition from Lamont Hilton for the extension of the South street sewer to Junkins' avenue was referred to committee on streets.

Petition of Nellie Leary that the sidewalk in front of her residence be extended six feet westerly on School street was referred to the committee on streets.

Petition of William C. Jenkins for a sewer on Middle street, from Congress to State, was referred to the committee on streets.

A petition of Nathan Lear for the relay of sidewalk in front of his residence on State street, and also calling the attention of the board to the condition of the sidewalk in front of Cabot street school, was referred to the committee on streets.

Petition of Burpee Wood and others for an arc light at the junction of Rogers street and Marginal road was referred to committee on street lights.

Petition of the Misses Mathes and Varrill for relay of sidewalk in front of Nos. 49 and 52 Market street, was referred to committee on streets.

Petition of William H. Ashe and others that Middle street be extended to Langdon hill and the houses remodeled was referred to same committee.

Petition of Charles F. Shillaber and C. E. Boynton for an asphalt pavement around their property on Highland street, Miller avenue and Lincoln avenue, was referred to committee on streets.

Petition of John H. Knox and others for a sewer on Union street, between Austin and State streets, was referred to committee on sewers.

Petition of Joseph Shenton and others that the pond on Pine street be either drained or filled up as it is a menace to public health was referred to committee on streets.

Petition of Rev. Myron Tyler and others for relay of sidewalk in front of the Christian church on Court street was referred to same committee.

Petition of the heirs of Charles A. Keeney for the relinquishment of the city's claim for back taxes was referred to committee on claims.

Bill of William Brown of $50 for damages received by the fire department, was referred to the city solicitor.

The quarterly report of the city marshal was accepted and ordered placed on file.

The city auditor's report of approved bills to the amount of $2452.51 was read and accepted and the bills ordered paid.

Ald. Hoyt for the committee on streets recommended that all petitions referred to his committee, with the exception of the claim of Frank Willey, be granted. He asked for further time on Mr. Willey's petition.

On motion of Ald. Gray the report of the committee on streets was accepted.

On the question of Ald. Brackett as to how much time Mr. Willey had given the city to settle the matter, Ald. Yeaton stated that he did not know, but as one of the committee he had looked into the matter and had been told by the city solicitor not to be in too much of a hurry to settle the case.

Ald. Hallam, for the committee on laying out drains and widening streets, reported favorably on the petition of Frank Newton for the sewer on Cass street.

On motion of Ald. Brackett the report of the committee was accepted.

Ald. Hallam, for the committee on street lights, recommended that an arc light be placed on the corner of Union street and South road, and the incandescent light now there be moved further down the road.

On motion of Ald. Yeaton the recommendation of the committee was accepted and adopted.

In regard to the petition for an arc light on Linden street, Ald. Hallam said he and the committee did not think an arc light necessary but recommended

A CLEVER FORGER.

Adolph Osgood Gets into Serious Trouble in Brooklyn.

While in This City he Displayed Dex erity in Imitating Signatures of Others.

Adolph Osgood, formerly of this city, but now of Brooklyn, N. Y., has got into a bad scrape in the metropolis.

Osgood, together with two boy companions, were arrested on Wednesday, charged with forgery.

Operating on the simplest of systems, they cashed bad checks on two victims alone to the tune of $1,350 in ten weeks.

These victims hope that this will be the extent of their losses, but they cannot be sure until their books have been thoroughly gone over.

The imitated signatures are so perfect that the rightful owners of the names cannot pick them out.

Detective Sergeants Alone and Carey were put on the case. They looked first for discharged employees and found that Osgood had been employed as steamer-photographer by Fiss, Doerr & Carroll up to three weeks ago, when he was dismissed for inattention to business.

They also found that Osgood's cousin and chum was Davidson, whom they knew as an ex-convict, with several aliases, and that they arrested him Tuesday afternoon and put him through the third degree.

Davidson told everything he knew and Osgood and Gonder were soon locked up. When Davidson learned that he could have had $1,800 in small bills and unlimited freedom if he had returned to Mr. Koesch's, he said he would commit suicide.

The other two prisoners also talked freely when told what Davidson had said. The plan concocted by the three was for Adolph to answer advertisements and stay in a place long enough to get a handful of blank checks and a copy of his employer's signature.

Osgood boasts that with twenty-four hours' practice he can make any man doubtful of his own signature. Davidson has good appearance and undertook the casting of the checks.

The six checks now in evidence show that between January 11 and February 10 they got $650 of Fiss, Doerr & Carroll's money and $700 of Thomas & Co. Adolph says he only got $10 out of all this, and he will take his mother's advice and turn State's evidence. He is a tough young person, and picked up Davidson's acquaintance in a pool room. Osgood gave the police some exhibitions of his pen dexterity that were little short of wonderful.

Adolph Osgood showed some of his pen dexterity while a resident of this city and was in trouble several times. He forged the signatures of several business men and so clever were the imitations that the men themselves were hardly able to make out any difference.

Ald. Hallam moved that H. Fisher Eldridge be appointed park commissioner, but on consulting the city's ordinances it was found that a park commissioner could not be appointed before July, and he withdrew his motion.

Ald. Gray called the attention of the board to the condition of Wentworth street. A property owner there had dug up the sidewalk so as to get into his barn cellar making it exceedingly dangerous for pedestrians and teams. The matter was referred to the city solicitor.

Ald. Hallam called the board's attention to the fact that boys had been breaking windows in the Plains school and he wanted to know if anything was being done about it.

He was told that the committee on schoolhouses would look out for the matter and have the windows boarded up.

Ald. Brown also stated that the tops of the poplar trees in front of the cemetery on Maplewood avenue were dead and might prove dangerous.

On motion of Ald. Gray the street commissioner was authorized to have the trees trimmed.

Ald. Hallam said Thomas Sullivan had asked permission to plant some young trees in front of his residence on Pine street. The matter was referred to committee on streets with power.

Ald. Hallam also said he hoped the board would take some action about the pond on Pine street as it was very bad indeed, especially during the hot weather.

Ald. Gray offered the following resolution and said his reasons for doing so was on account of the danger of the cemetery wall caving in:

Resolved, That the street commission-er be authorized at his discretion to use the South street gravel pit as a dumping place for ashes collected by the city.

After a short discussion the resolution passed by a unanimous vote.

On motion of Ald. Bates the board adjourned.

HUMP AND THE BEER

He Sees the Keeper Getting Left and Prints the Bell Cord

John, better known as "Hump" Hurley, who fought the memorable prize fight on Leach's island some years ago, is a victim of hard luck. That is what he calls it but in other people it would be a lack of will power and inability to keep both feet on the ground.

"Hump" drinks. Yes, that is the plain truth of the matter and he drinks so much and so often that he gets stunned and then comes to what he terms "hard luck." He is sentenced to Brentwood and many the day he has put in at the county farm, bringing wood in the winter and tilling the soil in the summer.

Wednesday "Hump" was sentenced to Brentwood and left the state house at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in charge of a keeper, bound to Brentwood. At the station he developed an unbearable thirst and begged so hard to be allowed the privilege of lowering one more big five that the keeper released and accompanied "Hump" across the street to the nearest saloon. As the keeper was paying for it "Hump" invited him to drink and soon a couple of "high balls" with short collars were firmly grasped about the waist. "Hump," with his professional swallow, could have handicapped his opponent about three beers and was soon longingly looking for more. Just then he glanced out the open door and saw the Concord train start. With a yell he made for it on the jump and managed to clamber on the rear platform of the last car. Seeing the keeper still fifty feet away and liable to miss connections "Hump" promptly reached up and gave the bell cord a good yank. The train came to a stop and conductor and brakemen came running back to see what the trouble was.

Were they mad? Say they talked real natty to "Hump" and that individual easily pushed forward into the smoker apologetically stating that he had an important engagement in Brentwood that evening and that the man who was getting left had his railroad ticket.

The Helping Circle of Kings Daughters held their annual meeting in the parlor of the Second Christian church last evening. At the close of the business of the meeting the remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner. Miss Leonie Pray rendered one of her fine autoharp solos. Several selections were sung by the Circle. Delightful refreshments were served during the evening. The company dispersed at a late hour pronouncing it to be one of the most pleasant occasions ever held by the Circle.

The Old Homestead

"The Old Homestead" seems to us as near an approach as possible to what a play should be. It depicts very truthfully country life in New England about half a century ago. The scenery is very rural and domestic in character, the haymakers gathering around the old wall singing "The most covered basket that hangs in the well." City life is also faithfully portrayed and the audience is treated to an excellent picture of Grace church from which are heard issuing strains of sweet music by the choir. Altogether the moral of the play is decidedly good and were every caterer for public entertainment to give us so healthful and innocent a performance as this is, we feel sure that parents and guardians of youth would no longer cry out as they now do against the immorality of theatre going. Entertainments of this sort are entitled to the staunchest support of the religious press.

Important Action Decided on by Spanish Cabinet.

WILL BE ADVISED BY PARLIAMENT.

Members Told of a Change in Time For Assembling.

Another Appeal to the Powers—Resolutions on Cuba Still Before the Senate—No Disposition to Curtail the Opportunity to Discuss—Mr. Hoar on the Crisis of War—House Declaration May Be Substituted for the One Reported.

Madrid, April 15.—At the cabinet council Thursday afternoon under the presidency of the queen regent it was decided to hasten the reopening of the Spanish parliament. The date for the assembling of the cortes was April 25, but parliament will now be summoned to meet on Wednesday next, April 20. The queen regent signed the decrees calling for a national subscription to increase the strength of the Spanish fleet.

Premier Sagasta made a statement on the subject of the recent developments of the Cuban situation as affected by events in Washington. He declared the situation was very serious and, while pointing out that "the debates in congress have no legal value," he deemed it advisable to expedite the reopening of the cortes "in order to allow national opinion and its representatives to declare the will of the people, and to enable the government to act in accord with the nation."

After the council the ministers reassembled at the ministry for foreign affairs and there discussed the question of sending a note to the great powers communicating the decisions arrived at and explaining the situation from the Spanish standpoint.

Strange to say, many of the warmest admirers of Fitzhugh Lee do not pattern their conduct after his.

Please hath its slaughters. More men on the Chilkoot pass than have fallen in a dozen Cuban "batties."

Caval General Lee gave no assurance to the hissing mob on the quay that he had left them for good. They may see him again.

If a state of war has not existed in the last, what does Spain mean by proposing a truce? Spain's motto appears to be "A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds."

Some idea of the tremendous power of Tom Reed may be had when one reads that nine-tenths of the house are in favor of overruling him. Strange that they do it; very, very strange.

The best thought of the country has decided that the young "ladies" of the base Art school that telegraphed "Tell all with diplomacy" to President McKinley are on the same road as that selected for diplomacy.

The Dallas News observes dryly that Texas has some strapping robust consonants who ought to make good soldiers; and it adds that "there are some old men at home who would be willing to take their places."

PLEASEANT WAY TO DUN.

Delinquent Customers Pay Up on Receipt of a Poem.

A Cleveland brewer man, prompted by an article recently in the paper of local business persons, writes agreeing that it is to be accomplished by a dunning-letter couched in good natured language, then one breathing threats in harsh words, and relates the following as an illustration:

"It was our custom to have a new clerk put in his spare time writing letters to slow customers. A clerk's rights were measured largely by the results of this work. Up in Michigan we had a particularly bad case. It was a bill of $12 against a man named William Rose. It had been same outlawed and was considered a dead duck, but every once in awhile we gave it a whirl. Finally one day the last clerk put in a bright young fellow, laid the following version on my desk and asked permission to mail them to Rose:

Oh, William Rose, oh, fragrant rose,
Yourself it is who surely know
They soil our books, they spoil our looks
And make the heart grow sad.

William Rose, feel your clothes
And find twelve dollars there.

The goods were sold in days of old
But we had white hair.

"They were forwarded, and inside of a week the man sent us the money, explaining that he had always intended to pay the account sometime, but could hold no longer against such a demand."

A Man called on a Distinguished Visit and talked and talked and talked.

And every ten minutes the Man said "Now, I don't want to bore you—I don't want to bore you!"

And if came to pass that after three hours, when the Man had said that 300 more, another Man, who had kept silence before the Distinguished Visitor, took the Walking Man by the arm and led him said and said unto him:

"Everybody understands that you don't want to bore anybody, but — it! you're doing it right along!"

And thereafter Silence prevailed over the land.—Atlanta Constitution government communicates its decisions Spain will stand ready to meet all eventualities."

The groups forming the majority in parliament will meet next Tuesday Sagasta, the premier, will confer with the leaders of the minority, explain to them the reasons for hastening the assembling of the cortes and arrange with them to constitute the new chamber as rapidly as possible in the hope of being able to begin public business by the 23d.

MURKINNESS OF THE SKY.

Madrid, April 15.—The feeling in Madrid is stronger than ever. All parties are uniting against the government and there are sinister references to the "Austrian," which mean that the queen regent, who has never been popular in Madrid, is rapidly falling into increased disfavor. The feeling against her majesty is exasperated by the quotations from the English and French papers of the suggestions of Emperor Francis Joseph respecting Cuba.

In addition to those arrested for the demonstrations, warrants are out for a number of prominent Carlists and notorious revolutionists. It is evident that all the animosity of the crowd is directed against the government, and not against the United States.

A letter just received from the Philippine Islands says that all the troops which were embarking for Spain at the time the communication was made were marched hurriedly to various towns in the interior, where the rebellion against Spanish rule has been renewed. It is added that over 20,000 well armed men are now in the field. There have been several engagements, and several Spanish priests have been massacred. Nobody appears to know how the Philippine insurgents, who had been disarmed, according to general report, were rearmed; but the belief prevails that Japan had a hand in the matter. The captain general of the Philippine Islands, it is further alleged, has been concealing the facts in the case from the national motto tomorrow.

The Post has it that "when congress has spoken there will be presented to Spain the last chance that that government will have to extricate itself from the Cuban tangle. It will have a chance to let Cuba go in peace and to receive a very tidy sum of purchase money in compensation; or it can fight to keep Cuba, and pay roundly in the shape of a war indemnity after that island has been taken away and made free."

In scoring those Americans who have no faith in a republican form of government, the Journal says: "They put the interest of the few above the instinct and the set purpose of the multitude. Whether their pockets are touched or their opinions are slighted, every theory of government which they avow tends straight to absolute monarchy. They condemn and deride the popular will when expressed by the only means which the constitution provides. They denounce the congress of the United States as unworthy of respect and unfit to carry on the affairs of the country. They lionize an autocratic power, isolated from the great body of the people and open only to the influence of the select. These are the things which mark the change from republicanism to absolutism."

WEYLER THEIR HOPE.

Madrid, April 15.—The feature of the opposition press is the endeavor to bring General Weyler to the front and make him the champion of the cause of revolution, under the guise of a saviour of the national honor. The general undoubtedly has numerous followers, and even the newspapers which, ever since his return from Cuba, have violently denounced him, are now lauding the former captain general of Cuba as the one man who can save the situation.

The País, under large headlines, reading "Great Treason—Spain Sold," says: "It is in the atmosphere one breathes. It is on all lips. It is sticking in our throats and palpitating in our hearts. When ready to fight, we have been vilely sold. Yesterday we were men; today we are women; but the country will avenge the treason." Then The País turns to General Weyler, after having been unfriendly to him for a long time, and exclaims: "General Weyler is not alone in appreciating the present dishonor. He is backed by numerous Republicans, patriotic Carlists, the Robledo conservatives, which party is composed of many senators and deputies and the representatives of the provinces; all the loyal Spaniards in Cuba, with the volunteers, the leaders of the army, who blushed under the stigma of their aristocracy, and he will have the support of the masses, who are only waiting for a guide and leader. General Weyler is not alone. No general and no political personage has more followers today than he has. May General Weyler not disappoint the hopes of so many patriots."

The military press is divided in opinion on the subject. The Courier thinks the ministry "with a contemptuous kick," adding: "Our pen falls from our hand as we contemplate the cowardice on one side and the villainy on the other. It is impossible to write of it seriously. We must be governed by the hermaphrodites of Athens, and must hide the tear which runs down the cheek while the lips curl in supreme sarcasm. We laugh while our teeth clinch, the bile turns in our stomach, anger heats our blood, and our hands instinctively seek an avenging weapon."

LIFE IN BOSTON.

Boston, April 15.—At the session of the grand lodge of Massachusetts, I. O. G. T., the proposed amendments to the laws of the grand lodge were laid over until next year. At the election of officers P. J. Chisholm was elected grand chief master. All the newly chosen officers were later installed.

Joseph Taber, 39 years old, and married, took a dose of carbolic acid and died almost instantly.

At a meeting of the directors of the New England Agricultural society it was decided to hold the annual meeting at Rye in August. Beside the three big state meetings, a purse meeting will be held June 28, 29 and 30 July 1, with nine open classes and give for Maine horses, with $400 purses.

The Massachusetts Audubon society met yesterday to protest against the slaughter of birds for military purposes. Dr. Charles Sedgewick Minot presided and the attendance was large. In opening Dr. Minot emphasized the enormousness of this destruction for the interests of agriculture, being a fact that birds slaughtered for women's dress meant so many insect pests let loose upon the farm and orchard.

GRAND ARMY OFFICERS.

Concord, N. H., April 15.—At the session of the New Hampshire department G. A. R., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Commander, Albert S. Threlkeld of Gorham; Adjutant, Henry Worcester; Rochester; Judge Advocate, D. E. Proctor; Chaplain, Dr. P. C. Conn; Concord; chaplain, Isaac S. Vail; delegates-at-large, H. M. Severance, Exeter; delegates, Andrew Hanau, Coaticook; P. O. J. M. Crossman, West Concord; Charles M. Pike, Keene; W. A. Beckford, Bristol.

REGENT WOULD ABDICATE.

Madrid, April 15.—The Madrid correspondent of The Morning Post, telegraphing by way of Biarritz, says: "The queen regent has informed the members of her court that it is her intention to abdicate. Immediately the cabinet takes any steps derogatory to Spain's honor and dignity."

NO VOTE YET.

Session of the Senate Thursday Given Up to Oratory.

Washington, April 15.—Thursday began in the senate with the usual assembling of enormous crowds and with a large attendance on the floor. The routine business was transacted with evident impatience, and Senator Davis sought the first opportunity to move that the senate proceed to the consideration of the intervention resolution. The motion having been adopted, Senator Hoar sought recognition, but Senator Turner of Washington, a young, black-mustached statesman from the west, whose income from his gold mines reaches a million a year, secured the floor.

Mr. Turner spoke without notes, and with great deliberation. He made a bitter attack upon the president for pursuing a weak and pusilliar course, full of evasion and equivocation, and having for its object the binding of the American people and the muzzling of the American congress. He charged that the Maine report was held back at the suggestion of the president, in order that the delay might be utilized in further dickering and dealing with Spain. Congress has been cajoled with iridescent and evanescent promises that have not yet been made good. European capitalists have chucked at our delay and indefinite policy, and the pope declares to the queen regent that "the president has been placed in a position where it is difficult for him to decide what course to pursue."

A cabinet minister who was interviewed said: "The true climax is approaching, but Spain is calm. She has done everything to avert war, and is not confident in her right and in the justice of her cause. She is ready to defend her soil and honor. While the American people are still in political suspense,

they are still in suspense."

They were forwarded, and inside of a week the man sent us the money, explaining that he had always intended to pay the account sometime, but could hold no longer against such a demand."

To whip the Satinizing Battery

It shows that the United States government is badly in need of modern guns when they send orders to the Portsmouth navy yard to remove the 12 pound rapid fire pieces which are now used as the satinizing battery. This will leave the navy yard without any modern guns.
